Seattle psychiatrist's medical license restricted due to sexual misconduct

OLYMPIA — The Medical Commission has immediately restricted the medical license of King County psychiatrist Elizabeth A. Noll, MD (MD00028718) due to sexual misconduct.

Noll allegedly had a romantic relationship with an adult male patient that lasted nearly four years

Noll is not allowed to treat male patients over the age of 18 years until the charges are resolved.

She must cease treating any current male patients 18 years or older within 90 days. She has 20 days to respond to the charges and to request a hearing.

Legal documents in this case are available by calling 360-236-4700 or online by clicking the link to "Provider Credential Search" on the agency home page.

The Medical Quality Assurance Commission protects public health and safety by assuring the competency and quality of physicians and physician assistants. The commission establishes and monitors qualifications for licensure, and consistently enforces practice standards and professional conduct through discipline and continuing education.
